

Sharp Shooters

Photos From the Field Compiled by SSG John Valceanu

Spotlight on COMMUNITY SPORTS

DURING his career as a photographer for Fort Dix, N.J., Charles Germain has often focused on the community's children and the many activities in which they participate. Germain's ability to capture innocence, emotion and the elusive "decisive moment" brought his work to our attention, and set it apart from that of other contributors.

1.

2.

3.

4.

1. Marcus Cook drives hard along the baseline in quest of a clear shot during a game at Fort Dix, N.J.
2. Brian Stringer of the Fort Dix Athletics hurls one to James Grogg of New Hanover at Grover Park Field.
3. Tyshon Milton demonstrates a high kick during a Kenpo karate session at the Fort Dix Youth Center.
4. The Fort Dix Pop Warner Football program cheerleaders are looking great as they form a "pyramid." Rain or shine the cheerleaders provide support at each game.

Photos by Charles Germain

